Hello,

My name is Bill MacKenty, and I am the computer science teacher at the American School of Warsaw. I am interested in using this classroom discussion rubric in my class. Specifically, I would like to post this on my class website. I will attribute you. I will not realize any profit from this material (I work in a non-profit school in Warsaw Poland). Your content would not be behind a password-protected section of my website. Can you please grant me permission to use this content?
